QUARTERLY NEWSLETTER

Dear Friends and Supporters,

Thank you for your invaluable support, allowing us to continue our programs and assist children in need. Our team in Nepal has been instrumental in implementing these initiatives with passion and dedication. Stay tuned for updates on our achievements and upcoming events that highlight the positive impact we are making together.

SCHOLARSHIP PROJECT

7 DAYS WINTER EDUCATION PROGRAM

"The "Winter Education Program 2024 organized by OneLoveOneWorld for 18 children at Shree Saraswati Secondary School, Lele, appears to have had a significant impact. By providing education in subjects like English, math, science, Nepali, and social studies during the vacation period, the program not only utilized their time effectively but also contributed to their academic growth and development. Moreover, the program focus on analyzing the children's present family and educational status to plan for their betterment shows a holistic approach towards supporting their overall well-being.

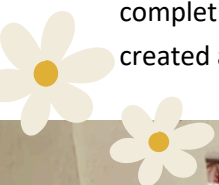

EDUCATIONAL MATERIALS DISTRIBUTION

Second Phase educational materials were distributed to 89 scholarship children at their school. Providing pens, pencils, notebooks, erasers, and sharpeners ensures that these children have access to necessary educational materials is a crucial step towards breaking down barriers to learning and empowering them to reach their full potential. By involving the representatives from Ward, School Principal, teachers, and parents in the distribution process, we are maintaining our transparency and accountability as well as this ensure everyone is aware of and fostering a sense of community support.

PARENTS MEETING

Conducting Parent-Teacher Meetings at Adarsha and Saraswoti Secondary School is a fantastic initiative that fosters collaboration between parents, teachers, principals, children, and OLOW. It provided a platform for open communication and exchange of valuable insights into the children's home situations, homework completion, and study habits. This meeting not only strengthen the bond between school and home but also created a supportive ecosystem that empowers students to thrive academically and personally.

SCHOOL SUPPORT PROGRAM

WARM CLOTHES AND EDUCATIONAL MATERIALS DISTRIBUTED

Collaborated with Godawari Municipality and 17 like-minded organizations to distribute warm clothing, stationery, and gift hampers to 511 children from five different public schools. By providing school uniforms, sweaters, caps, shoes, socks, notebooks, pens, pencils, and daily use items, we're addressing critical needs and ensuring that these children have the resources they need to stay warm and engaged in their education. With collaborative hands, we are able to reach a broader audience and provide more comprehensive support to those in need.

SUPPORT FOR HIMALAYAN SARASWATI SCHOOL

We provided 15 school benches, 10 water purifiers, 2 seesaws, and 1 speaker to the Himalayan Saraswati Basic School in Dhading District, benefiting 143 children. We extend our gratitude to the collaborative efforts of the Rural Municipality and Ward 6, as this initiative is significantly enhancing the learning environment.

SCHOOL SUPPORT AT SATKANYA BASIC SCHOOL RUBY VALLEY

OLOW supported Sat Kanya Basic School in setting up ECD classes, providing flooring, furnishings, play items, and educational materials, bringing joy to 27 children as they engage in play and learning. Play-based learning environments are essential for fostering creativity, social skills, and cognitive development in young children. The inauguration was conducted by Mr. Kul Bahadur Tamang, President of the School Management Committee, and Mr. Sameer Gurung, the Ward President.

RUKTUNG SCHOOL SUPPORT (RUBY VALLEY)

134 students of Ruktung Basic School of Dhading district, were delighted to receive warm woolen hats and school tracksuits ensures that they stay warm and comfortable during the colder months, allowing them to focus better on their studies. The presence of Ward Chairman Mr. Ramba Tamang, ward members, Principal Tej Tamang, teachers, students, and their parents during the distribution demonstrates a shared commitment to the well-being and education of the students.

SOME ACTIVITY PICKS

CHILDREN'S 3-DAY COMIC AND STORY-WRITING TRAINING

Our children Seema and Sandesh participated in a 3-day comic and story-writing training organized by Lalitpur Metropolitan City, representing Ward 14. This training provided them with the opportunity to engage in artistic and literary creativity, allowing them to express their thoughts more easily.

THIRD MOCK MUNICIPAL PROGRAM

OLOW participated in the 3rd Mock Municipality program organized by Lalitpur Metropolitan City and the Child Club, in collaboration with various organizations from January 16th to 19th. OneLoveOneWorld is honored to have joined with 72 children participating, including 2 from OLOW who actively participated and 2 who volunteered. Our president, Niraj Joshi, received a token of love and an appreciation certificate for our contributions in planning, management, execution, and reporting of the program.

STAFF CAPACITY ENHANCEMENT

Our Executive Director, Ms. Ritu, participated in a 4-day First Aid Training facilitated by Nepal Red Cross Society, gaining valuable hands-on experience. Our Social Mobilizer, Mr. Narayan, and Ms. Sonika attended a 1-day workshop organized by Lalitpur Metropolitan City on provisions within the local government structure concerning reconciliation and registration procedures related to birth, death, and marriage and also attended a 2-day trauma care training organized by "For the One." They learned stress and trauma management, preventing burnout, and effective stress-release techniques, crucial for supporting individuals and promoting well-being within our organization.

OFFICIAL UPDATES

12TH ANNUAL GENERAL MEETING

Our 12th Annual General Meeting, with Chief Guest Mr. Amrit Jung Mahat, Ward President of Lalitpur Metropolitan City, and Mr. Niraj Joshi, President of OneLoveOneWorld, was held on December 9, 2024. Stakeholders reviewed progress, celebrated success, and discussed growth areas. Through engaging discussions, we reaffirmed our commitment to transparency and accountability. Best wishes to the newly elected board members.

TOT TEACHERS REVIEW MEETING

The Review Meeting of "Training of Teachers" was attended by the board, staff of OLOW, teachers, and facilitators, aimed to evaluate the implementation of a 10-days training in classes and among children. By gathering feedback we identified the strengths, areas for improvement, and strategies for enhancing the quality of education. This meeting provided a valuable platform for collaboration, reflection, and planning to ensure the best education.

FAREWELL AND WELCOME TO OUR NEW COLLEAGUES

We celebrated a farewell of our valuable team member, Mr. Shree Krishna Nepali, who worked with us for 8.5 years, and welcome our new team members, Ms. Sonika Prasain and Mr. Narayan Prasad Adhikari, in the role of Social Mobilizers. We extend a warm welcome to Sonika and Narayan and wish them all the best for their successful tenure.

WOMEN'S DAY 2024

On International Women's Day, a rally was held with invaluable support from the organization called "Yuwalaya". This march showcased solidarity and a shared commitment to gender equality and women's empowerment. The following day, we had the honor of participating in a rally organized by Lalitpur Metropolitan City, where 120 women and women's groups demonstrated and sold their products. This event demonstrated the success of investments made by Lalitpur Metropolitan City and truly embodied the slogan "Invest in women, accelerate progress."
